

“Dollar Day” Session of Legend’s 26th Regency Auction a Record Breaker!

In its first ever two-day auction, Legend Rare Coin Auctions’ Regency Auction 26 began with an explosive start. The first day’s offering, focused solely on silver dollars, anchored by the P.F.M. Collection of Morgan Dollars, selections from the world-famous Aurora Borealis Collection of Toned Morgan Dollars, and the Crow River Collection of Peace Dollars. In all, the 237-lot auction session saw record breaking participation from numismatic enthusiasts from all over the world. There are many highlights, the highest grossing lot in the session was the 1892-S dollar in MS65 PCGS from the P.F.M. Collection, the current # 6 PCGS Registry Set, realizing $193,875.

“We told you so!” exclaimed Laura Sperber, founder of Legend Rare Coin Auctions. “Last night’s sale enjoyed record phone, internet and live bidding in the room. In many cases there were multiple bidders battling it out to bring home the numismatic prize they desired! The stats don’t just speak for themselves, they scream!”
